CHARLES MCDUFFIE/MCDUFFEY SR.

Charles McDuffie Sr. was born in Jackson County, Mississippi around the year 1821. It is believed, but not proved, that he was the son of Allen McDuffie and his wife Agness Nancy Holland McDuffie. By 1825 Charles Sr.'s father Allen had died . By 1830 Charles' mother Agness had married as her second husband John Richard Byrd. Charles Sr. had nine half-brothers and half-sisters. Charles McDuffie Sr. married Sarah Wilson in Harrison County, Mississippi on 12 November 1846. Sarah Wilson was born around the year 1827 in either Mississippi or Alabama. We do not know the names of her parents. Charles' last name is listed as Duffie instead of McDuffie on the marriage index.

The young family appears first on the 1850 Census for Jackson County, Mississippi. Sometime in the mid-1850's they moved to Mobile County, Alabama. The 1860 Census shows Charles and his family in Mobile County. Charles and Sarah Wilson McDuffie had six children: John Allen; Jacob Wesley; Charles Jr.; Julia Agness; Elizabeth; and Thomas McDuffie.

Charles and Sarah's oldest child John Allen McDuffie was born in Jackson County, Mississippi on 25 December 1847. John Allen married twice. His first wife was Mrs. Lilla Beard. They married in Mobile County on 3 November 1869. John Allen married second Ellenor F. Allen in Mobile County on 20 August 1891. John Allen McDuffie fathered at least ten children. With Emily Dismukes he had Phillip and Sarah McDuffie. With his first wife Lilla and than his second wife Ellenor he had Daniel; Archie; Mary Mollie Elizabeth ; Dawson; Tom; Nancy "Nan"; Sebert; and William Calvin McDuffie. John Allen McDuffie died on 22 November 1926. He is buried next to his second wife Ellenor in the Allentown Cemetery at Semmes, Alabama.

Their second child Jacob Wesley McDuffie was born in Jackson County, Mississippi in May 1850. Jacob wesley was called Wesley. He married Sarah "Sallie" Rester in Mobile County, Alabama on 10 May 1879. She was the daughter of Jackson and Winnie Davis Rester. Wesley and Sarah Rester McDuffie had the four following children: Evenlean; Wesley Jr.; Vley; and Nettie (Nellie) McDuffie. Jacob Wesley died on 12 September 1928. He is buried next to his wife Sarah in the Allentown Cemetery in Semmes, Alabama.

The third child of Charles and Sarah McDuffie Sr. is Charles McDuffie Jr. He was born in Jackson County, Mississippi on 6 June 1851. Charles McDuffie Jr. married Martha Ann Maples in Mobile County on 12 May 1873. They had the following children: Emily Sarah; Charlie III; Daniel Wesley; John; Mary Magdaline; Harriet Cecelia; Hiram; Willie; Martha; Addie; and Henry McDuffie. Charles McDuffie Jr. died on 30 August 1929. He is buried next to his wife Martha Ann in the Joyner Cemetery at Tanner-Williams, Alabama.

Their fourth child was Julia Agness McDuffie. She was born in Mobile County, Alabama on 25 January 1857. Julia Agness McDuffie married Henry Rester in Mobile County on 22 August 1877. Henry Rester was the son of Jackson and Winnie Davis Rester. Julia's older brother Jacob Wesley McDuffie married Henry Rester's older sister Sarah "Sallie" Rester. Julia Agness and her husband Henry Rester had the following children: Harris; Annie; Leonard; Elizabeth; Zeaman; Jessie; Lizzie; and Mallie Eugene Rester. Julia Agness McDuffie Rester died on 3 August 1922. She is buried next to her husband Henry Rester in the Allentown Cemetery at Semmes, Alabama.

The fifth and sixth children of Charles and Sarah McDuffie Sr. were Elizabeth McDuffie who was born in Mobile County around the year 1861 and Thomas McDuffie who ^{was} born in Mobile County around the year 1867. These two children show up on the 1870 Mobile County, Alabama Census. That is the first and only record of these two children. We have not been able to locate them after 1870.

Charles McDuffie Sr. fought in the Confederate Army during the Civil War. He was enlisted by Colonel McKinstry into Company I of the 32nd Alabama Infantry . His enlistment took place in Mobile, Alabama on 2 April 1862. He was detached as armored on 4 June 1862. Charles enlisted for three years or until the war was over according to his military record. When he enlisted at Mobile he enlisted as a private. Charles McDuffie appears on Company Muster Rolls from April to June 1862; July to August 1862; and September to October 1862. On the September to October 1862 Muster Roll Charles appears as a 5th Sergeant. A Prisoners of War list from the Department of the Cumberland states that Charles McDuffie Sr. was captured by the Union Army at La Vergne, Tennessee on 7 October 1862. La Vergne is just outside of Nashville, Tennessee. Next Charles appears on a list that stated: "Received 13 November 1862, from Captain R.S. Davis, U.S.A., the following paroled Prisoners of War- one hundred and ninty-two in numbers." The records indicate that Charles was paroled on 9 October 1862. On 20 November 1862 Charles McDuffie Sr. appeared on a list of prisoners that were paroled and sent beyond the lines by Brigadier General Negley at Nashville, Tennessee. The last record for Charles Sr. shows Charles on a Company Muster Roll dated January to Febuary 1863. We do not believe that Charles was killed during the war because according to the 1870 Census he had a son named Thomas McDuffie that was born in 1867. Which is after the war ended. We do know that Charles was dead by 1870 because his wife Sarah Wilson McDuffie by 1870 was married to her second husband.

At this time we do not have a death date or a place of burial for Charles McDuffie Sr. His wife Sarah Wilson McDuffie married second husband George W. Pierce in Mobile County, Alabama on 5 May 1870. George W. Pierce was a widower. His first wife had been Toenzel Stringfellow. We know that George Pierce brought at least eight children into the marriage. His children with his first wife included: Wiley; Nancy; Harriet; Sarah Ann; Silas; James; George; and Millie Pierce.

The 1870 Census for Mobile County, Alabama shows Sarah Wilson McDuffie Pierce and her second husband George Pierce living with some of their children from their first marriages. It is believed that Sarah and George Pierce did not have any children together. By the 1880 Census for Mobile County, we find that Sarah Wilson McDuffie Pierce was dead and George W. Pierce was living alone again as a widower. We do not have a death date or place of burial for Sarah Wilson McDuffie Pierce. (1,090 words). Submitted by Karen Middleton Pierce. MARRIAGE BOND.

State of Mississippi,) JACKSON COUNTY.) S. S.

Know All Men by these Presents:

We, Martin Young as principal, and Elijah McDuffie
both of the County of Jackson and State of Mississippi, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Mississippi, the sum of One Hundred Dollars, lawful money, for the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we and each of us do hereby bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Witness our hands, and seals, this 6th day of June A. D. 18*87*

The Condition of this Obligation is: That whereas application has been made to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of said County for a license for the marriage of Martin Young and Mary Watson

Now Therefore, if there shall be no lawful cause to obstruct the marriage for which said license is granted, this

FROM RECORDS ACQUIRED AND KEPT BY QUEENIE McDUFFIE AND ELLIE
LOUISE TRAILOR IN ADDITION TO HER OWN PERSONAL RESEARCH.

After the defeat of Prince Charles Edward Stuart at Culloden in 1746, Flora McDonald conducted Prince Charles who was disguised as "Betty Burke" the Irish Washerwoman Ormiciade to Portree in the Isle of Skye where the Prince was committed to the care of McDonald of Kingsburg.

Flora McDonald was arrested by the Government for her part in this affair and held in captivity for about a year, during which time she received a great deal of attention and honor.

In 1750 she married the son of McDonald of Kingsburg and became the mother of several children.

They moved to North Carolina in 1774 and when the Revolutionary War broke out her husband was commissioned a Brigadier General in the British Army. Her five sons were also British Officers.

Flora returned to Scotland in 1779 with her youngest daughter. Two years later she was joined by her husband where they lived until her death at Kingsburg, March 5, 1790.

She was buried at Kilmurr in one of the sheets on the bed in which Prince Charles Edward slept the night he passed at Kingsburg.

Dr. Johnson who was entertained by Flora in 1773 describes her as: "A woman of gentle manners and elegant presence." He also says that "Her name will be mentioned in history, and if courage and fidelity are virtues mentioned with honor."

After the breaking up of the Clans of Scotland the following oath was taken by the Scottish people. This might explain why the family of Flora McDonald served in the British Army or did not take sides.

"I swear as I shall answer at the great day of judgment; I have not and shall not have in my possession any guns, and sword or arms whatsoever and will never wear tartan, plaid, or any part of the Highland Garb. If I do so may I be accused in my undertakings, family and property. May I never see my wife nor children, nor father, mother or other relation, may I be killed in battle as a fugitive coward, and lie without Christian burial in a foreign land, far from the grave of my forefathers and kindred. May all of this come upon me if I break this oath."

NOTE: This oath was repealed in 1872 through the influence of Sir Walter Scott's novel in 1872.

→ The McDuffies are of Scotch ancestry, the first member of the family in this country being one John McDuffie, who left his native land of Scotland to settle in the new world, taking up his abode in South Carolina prior to the Revolutionary war. He was married to Miss Flora McDonald also of Scotland, and their son, Norman became the father of the subject of this sketch.

Norman was born in South Carolina, but removed to Greene County, Mississippi when that state was a territory. He took up his residence on the Chickasawhay River, on which he located a ferry, which was long known as McDuffie's ferry, at what is now the town of Leaksville. He died in Green County, Mississippi, when the subject of this sketch was a small boy. The latter was born in Greene County March 12, 1818, the fourth of eight children, and remained with his mother (whose maiden name was Mary Armstrong) until he attained his tenth year, at which time he was moved to Hinds County, Mississippi, where his schooldays were spent, but in 1853 he settled on the farm which he now occupies, at which time he purchased 680 acres

NOTE: South Carolina given by Historian as place of birth of Norman McDuffie is an error. He was born in North Carolina. See 1880 Census report of George McDuffie, Morehouse Parish, Louisiana.

The following McDuffie records were found in possession of May Gardner, descendant of John and Flora McDonald McDuffie, who died May 1951. These are in possession now of Queenie McDuffie, Oak Ridge, Louisiana.

Queenie McDuffie states that she believes May Gardner copied the following record from records which she, Queenie McDuffie, had in her possession as late as 1931, but at this time she cannot locate them. These were records made from a brief history and genealogy of the family as told by George W. McDuffie in 1896 to his granddaughter, Ellie L. Traylor. See certified copy following:

I, Ellie L. Traylor, do hereby certify that the following family records given by George W. McDuffie, my grandfather, born 1818 Greene County, Mississippi, are the same facts told me by the said George W. McDuffie born 1818. He told me this July 15, 1896 and I made a written record of these facts at that time. I now have them recorded on a family chart in my possession.

Dear Mrs. Strickland,

Thank you. Now my 88 year old Mother wants me to take her to the Mission Cemetery.

Please copy the pamphlet you have on the McDuffie family. I've misplaced mine and I don't remember that it had as many as 30 pages.

My information said that Mary (Polly) McDuffie married a Mr. Martin. In "Royalists in the Southern Campaign of the Revolutionary War" by Mustie June Clark I find a Norman Martin, Sergeant, serving in the Royal North Carolina Regiment in June, 1782. In the same book I find a Sergeant Norman Martin serving at Country Harbor, Nova Scotia in June, 1784, same Regiment. The dates allow him to be Mary (Polly) McDuffie's husband. He could have been older. I have the feeling that he could have been buried, possibly Cumberland County, N.C.

are mentioned in the

Thanks to you, my 88 year old mother has now visited the grave of her g g g grand-mother, Flora McDonald McDuffie, in Leaned, Ms. She do not know where she buried her husband, John McDuffie.

(Pally) Not do we know where Mary Susan McDuffie Martin ~~Hatten~~ Hatten is buried. Her first husband was either Norman Martin or John Martin, the second was Rains Hatten, no children by Hatten. The Martin children were Daniel, Norman, John and Alan. Daniel, my g g grandfather settled in Clarke County, Ms. He had 31 children.

My mother has a great grandson who is 10th generation in America and in Mississippi.

In memory of Nancy McDuffie Morrison,
Born Isle of Skye, Scotland, Died

Dec. 1860 - age 96 years.

Florence McDonald McDuffie was my g-g-g-g grandmother. Daniel Martin and Norman Martin in Clark County were her grand sons.

Several years ago I wrote to the Pastor of First Baptist Church in Edwards and he sent me directions to the only cemetery near Edwards that he knew anything about. I'm sorry, but I no longer have those directions and will probably never be able to see for myself these old tombstones.

I'm surprised that the Martins didn't leave any of their land in Old Wayne Co. Daniel Martin, my g-g-grandfather settled in T 2 R 6 on 10/5/1811, ~~Wayne~~ Wayne Co. On 11/14/1818, a Daniel Martin applied for an extension of credit on T 2 - R 6 & in Greene Co. I don't know when they migrated to Clark Co. (Probably before 1830)

Thank you for the information on Phattie and for the burial place of John Hamilton Prewis in Outman Cemetery. I've been (when I was a child) in that cemetery but didn't know that he was buried there.

Sincerely yours,

McDuffie

Ladies:

This may be out of your territory, but -

Family tradition says there is an old cemetery in Hinds Co. near Edwards where an old tombstone reads:

buried
Hinds Co.
Ms.

→ Flora (McDonald) McDuffie, wife of John McDuffie, died 1833, born Isle of Skye, Scotland.

They immigrated about 1764 and probably ~~landed~~ landed in Wilmington, N.C.

(Some years ago I wrote to the Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Edwards and he gave me directions to the only old cemetery he knew of. Those directions have been lost.)

There were several children, a daughter who married Alexander Morrison, mudock, Mary (Polly) who married Norman (?) Martin. They lived in Cumberland Co. N.C. until about 1811 when they homesteaded in Hayne Co. Ms.

also
Sibley

Mary McDuffie and Norman Martin's children were

1. Norman Martin who helped organize Clark Co in 1833.

2. Daniel Martin, my ~~gr~~ grandfather

m. 1. Susan Ann (or Selma) Baxter

m. 2. Martha Jane Wolfe McDonald

3. John Martin

4. Alan Martin - probably never married

I have the feeling that the Alexanders (Morrison) moved on to Hinds Co. taking ~~Flora~~ ^{Flora McDonald} ~~McDonald~~ ^{McDonald} McDuffie with them so there are probably Morrison head stones in the same cemetery.
Mary (Polly) Martin
~~Flora~~ later married Rorer Hutton - no issue.

If you have any information, I would be happy to have same and a bill for your services.

Sincerely yours

Next I will be asking about William Desires Chatham who registered for the War of 1812 in Snell, Ms. He married, Putnam Co. GA. in 1815 to Elizabeth ~~Chickles~~ Casklin.

Pas couple pledge nuptials

Wanda Kay McDuffee became the bride of Joseph Glenn Barlow in an afternoon ceremony on July 18 at Bethel Assembly of God Church of Pascagoula, with the Rev. Gene Barlow of Pensacola, Fla., uncle of the bridegroom, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey McDuffee and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Barlow, all of Pascagoula.

Nuptial music for the double ring, candlelight vows was offered by organist Elva Avera, pianist Ronald J. Oswald, and vocalists Michael Green and Melissa Green.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore formal white imported bridal satin and beaded silk Venise lace, its Basque bodice fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and Gibson Girl sleeves.

The sleeves featured cut-outs of the lace, and end in bridal points above the hands. The back of the bodice was lavished with motives of sheer scalloped laces, and the waist accented with medallions of Venise lace.

The full circular skirt, adorned with embroidered lace cut-outs, fell in soft gathers from a Basque waistline to a hem finished with a wide border of hand-clipped scallops of Venise lace, and extended to a cathedral length train.

She wore a jeweled silken garland in her hair, from which drifted a fingertip veil of illusion; a delicate pouff framed her face. Her jewelry included a strand of pearls and matching earrings, gifts from her bridegroom.

She carried cascading pink and white silk roses with tucks of white, dusty rose and teal green satin ribbons and white tulle, tied with satin streamers in matching hues.

The flowers were atop a small white Bible given to the bride by her paternal grandmother, Lou Horne of Orange Grove. She also carried a white linen handkerchief given to her by her mother, and an embroidered handkerchief first carried by her matron of honor on her wedding day.

Judy Roberts of Pascagoula was matron of honor and maid of honor was Barbara Bonta of Moss Point. Bridesmaids were Rhonda Crane of Escatawpa and Diana Walters of Moss Point; junior bridesmaid was Trinity Vaughan of Gautier.

The bridegroom was served by his father as best man, and by his brother Jeffery Barlow as groomsman. Other groomsmen were Anton Kaplan and Bruce Brister of Pascagoula; junior groomsmen were Bobby McDuffee of Harvey La., nephew of the bride, and Hal Vaughan III of Gautier.

Ushers, who also lighted candles, were Billy McDuffee of Harvey, brother of the bride, and Stephen Bishop of Pascagoula.

Attendant children were Michelle Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Vaughan Jr. of Gautier, and Brittany Bonta, daughter of Barbara Bonta, flower girls, and Jonathan Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Harrison of Gautier, ring bearer.

A reception followed at the church, with Barbara Strahan and Melissa Green of Pascagoula directing the fete. Guests were registered by Mesha Lang of Pascagoula, cousin of the bride.

Tea girls were Jenny Barlow of Gautier, Suzanne Young of Escatawpa, Ashley Oaks of Mobile, Ala., and Barbara Salley of Pascagoula. Rice bags were distributed by Shelby Mathis of Pensacola, Fla., cousin of the bridegroom, and Mackenzie Rogers of Escatawpa, cousin of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. J.G. Barlow

After a wedding trip to Destin, Fla., the couple is at home in Pascagoula. On the eve of the wedding, Ada Lawrence hosted a rehearsal dinner in her home.

Summer vows set

The approaching marriage of Wanda Kay McDuffee and Joseph Glen Barlow has been announced.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey McDuffee of Pascagoula, and the granddaughter of Mrs. George C. (Lou) Horne of Pascagoula and the late Mr. Horne, and of Mrs. Cody (Lula) Stringfellow of Lucedale and the late Mr. Stringfellow.

Miss McDuffee was graduated in 1981 from Moss Point High School, and received degrees in elementary education from Gulf Coast Junior College and University of Southern Mississippi. She is employed with the Moss Point School System as a kindergarten teacher.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Barlow of Pascagoula, and the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Barlow of Pascagoula, and of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Pierce of Pensacola, Fla.

Mr. Barlow was graduated in 1982 from Pascagoula High School and received a degree in political science and criminal justice from University of Southern Mississippi. He is attending University of Mississippi Law School.

Vows will be said at 3 p.m. on July 18 at Bethel Assembly of God Church of Pascagoula, with the Rev. Gene Barlow of Pensacola officiating at the marriage of his nephew.

Double Funeral Service Held For Accident Victims

Double funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for Walter S. McDuffie and Marion Bernard McDuffie, Jr., grandfather and grandson fatally injured Sunday when the automobile in which they were passengers overturned on U. S. Highway 90 near the Alabama-Florida line.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion B. McDuffie, Sr., parents of the dead boy and his daughter-in-law of 25, and a man, were taken in a 12-passenger ambulance from Mobile Infirmary to Higgins Mortuary chapel and Pine Crest Cemetery for the services. Following the funeral they were taken to their home at 256 Weinacker Avenue. Both injured had been confined to the infirmary since the accident.

Another victim of the accident, Mrs. Charles Kirtland, mother of Mrs. Marion B. McDuffie, Sr., and grandmother of the dead boy remained at the infirmary, where little change was seen in her critical condition.

Mrs. W. S. McDuffie, widow of the dead man and paternal grandmother of the boy, and 15-year-old Calvin Black, 310 Weinacker Avenue, were others injured in the accident. They are still confined to the infirmary.

Services at the double funeral were conducted by the Rev. Warner DuBose of the Government Street Presbyterian Church and Rev. David H. Edington, Jr., of the Central Presbyterian Church.

Second Mobilian Dies Of Injuries In Auto Accident

Marion McDuffie Succumbs;
Slight Improvement Shown
By Mrs. Kirtland

Slight improvement in the condition of Mrs. Charles Kirtland, 256 Weinacker Avenue, who was critically injured Sunday night in a highway accident, which proved fatal to two other Mobilians, was reported by Mobile Infirmary attaches Monday night.

It was stated that Mrs. Kirtland, who had been unconscious since the accident occurred shortly before 7 p.m. Sunday, regained consciousness about 3 p.m. Monday. Her condition was still considered critical, however.

Mrs. Kirtland is suffering from a possible fractured skull and other injuries, doctors said.

Boy Second Fatality

The second fatality of the accident was recorded Monday when 10-year-old Marion B. McDuffie, Jr., died.

Walter S. McDuffie, of Crichton, grandfather of the boy who died Monday, died a short while after the accident Sunday.

Marion B. McDuffie, Sr., driver of the automobile which overturned on United States Highway 90 near the Alabama-Florida line, was reported resting well at the hospital after treatment for double fracture of the right arm and foot injuries.

Mrs. Marion McDuffie, Sr., mother of the dead boy, was suffering from a possible rib fracture, numerous body bruises and shock.

Sixteen-year-old Calvin Black, 310 Weinacker Avenue, remained in a serious condition from a fracture of the upper right leg and head injuries.

Mrs. W. S. McDuffie, wife of the dead man and grandmother of the dead boy, was bruised and shaken up.

The party was returning home after spending Sunday at a Pensacola beach.

Funeral services for the two fatally injured will be held Wednesday at an hour to be announced later by Higgins Mortuary.

McDuffie told officers he lost control of the machine on a steep slope about two miles from the state line, in Florida. He said the rear wheels of the car struck a sand embankment along the side of the road and overturned, rolling into a deep gully.

Blood Transfusion; Others'
Injuries Serious

W. S. McDuffie of Crichton was killed and six other Mobilians were injured late Sunday afternoon when the automobile in which they were riding overturned on Highway 90 near the Alabama-Florida state line.

McDuffie, head of the Atlas Mating Company, was almost instantly killed.

Those injured were:
Marion B. McDuffie, son of the dead man, who sustained a broken arm and multiple lacerations and bruises.

Mrs. Marion B. McDuffie, who suffered undetermined injuries and was reported to be in a critical condition.

Youth Critically Hurt
Marion McDuffie, Jr., 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion McDuffie, who was cut about the neck and body. He was given a blood transfusion at the Mobile Infirmary.

Mrs. W. C. McDuffie, widow of the fatally injured man, who was seriously injured about head and body.

Mrs. Charles Kirtland, mother of Mrs. Marion McDuffie, seriously injured. All of whom live at 256 Weinacker Avenue.

Calvin Black, 308 Weinacker Avenue.

The injured persons were removed to the Mobile Infirmary following the crash by Mrs. Grace Haas, 225 Government Street, and William B. Taylor, Mobile postmaster, passing motorists at the time of the crash.

Marion McDuffie, driver of the machine, told Mobile officers that he lost control of his machine on a steep slope on the highway about two miles from the state line in Florida.

McDuffie said the rear wheels of the car struck the sand embankment at the side of the road and the machine overturned, rolling down the slope into a deep gully.

The Mobilians were en route to Mobile after spending Sunday at Pensacola Beach.
